Maneggia Family Scholarship

Established 2004

When Jane Tedford Maneggia passed away in July 2004, her children noted that she was the last member of her generation in their family. All of her husband, Paul's siblings and their spouses had pre-deceased her. That was the impetus for establishing this award. Jane's daughter has shared some information about the family...

Her grandfather and grandmother were first generation Americans born of Italian parents. They moved to Connecticut in 1904 from New York City and purchased the farm "in the hollow". It is the property with the white farmhouse at the bottom of Steele's Crossing Road. They raised sheep, grew vegetables, apples and cherries and eventually also raised milking cows. Grandfather Maneggia was involved in town activities, serving as a selectman and also as a member of the Board of Education. Although his children never attended college, their offspring all went on to become good responsible citizens with varied careers including teaching, nursing, police, fire and postal service, agriculture and hairdressing.

The Maneggia family congratulates you as you graduate from Bolton High School and wishes you success in your chosen field of study reminding you of how fortunate you are to begin life's journey in Bolton.
