John J. Morianos Memorial Scholarship

Established 2005

John James Morianos was born in Manchester, January 16, 1935. He was a resident of Bolton for more than 40 years until his death in April 2005. After graduating from Manchester High School, he served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1953 to 1955. He owned and operated the Three J's Café for over 50 years.

John was active in several community organizations including the Bolton Board of Education, Zoning Board of Appeals and the Bolton Fire Commission. He was a volunteer fireman, past president of the Manchester Lions Club, and a member and former chairman of the Bolton Democratic Town Committee. He was a volunteer football and baseball coach and quietly supported countless charitable activities and organizations. He was an avid Red Sox fan and was thrilled with the 2004 World Series Championship.

His family and many friends have established this scholarship to honor his memory.
