Martin J. and Jean E. Sheridan Memorial Scholarship

Established 2002

Martin J. and Jean E. Sheridan were the grandparents of Rick, Greg and Becky Hein. They both died in 2001 after 50 years of marriage, five children and seven grandchildren. Education had always been important to both of them. Mr. Sheridan was the first of his family to graduate from college earning a Bachelor of Science degree in 1946 from Holy Cross College. He was a navy jet fighter pilot with 23 years of service. Upon hearing of each transfer, Mr and Mrs. Sheridan would begin investigating the school systems even before starting a new house search.

Upon retiring from the Navy, Mr. Sheridan had another career. He was an instructor at the customer training center for Pratt & Whitney Aircraft in Wethersfield. There he trained engineers from all over the world to maintain Pratt & Whitney engines. The Sheridans had always been impressed with the Bolton School System, attending many ceremonies and concerts. The Sheridan family feels that endowing a scholarship in their names is an appropriate way to honor their memories.
